Al-Rehman Textiles (Pvt.) Ltd.

Internal Grievance Mechanism Policy

Document Ref: HR-POL-014 | Effective Date: 03 Jan 2025 | Version 2.1
SAMPLE / SYNTHETIC DOCUMENT — generated for AuditReady AI testing purposes only.

1. Purpose

This policy establishes the procedure through which employees of Al-Rehman Textiles may raise workplace concerns, complaints, or grievances related to working conditions, wages, treatment by supervisors, or any violation of factory conduct standards.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all permanent, contract, and probationary workers across all departments, including the Sewing Hall, Cutting Section, Finishing, and Packing departments.

3. Reporting Procedure

Employees who wish to raise a grievance must submit a written complaint to their direct Line Supervisor. If the matter is not resolved within 5 working days, the complaint may be escalated in writing to the HR Department Manager. All complaints must include the employee's name, department, and employee ID.

4. Escalation and Resolution

The HR Department will review escalated grievances within 10 working days and issue a written response to the employee. Repeated or unresolved grievances may be brought before the Factory Compliance Committee, which meets on a quarterly basis.

5. Non-Retaliation

Al-Rehman Textiles prohibits retaliation against any employee who submits a grievance in good faith through the channels described above.

6. Recordkeeping

All written grievances and their resolutions will be logged and retained by the HR Department for a minimum of 3 years for audit purposes.
