AL-REHMAN TEXTILES
Internal Grievance Mechanism Policy

Document Code: ART-HR-GR-001
Version: 1.0
Effective Date: 15 July 2026
Review Date: 15 July 2027
Site: Al-Rehman Textiles, Industrial Area, Pakistan

Purpose

This policy sets out the internal process for workers to raise concerns related to wages, overtime, harassment, safety, attendance, discipline, workplace conditions, and management conduct. It is intended to support transparent handling of concerns in line with general WRAP, BSCI, SMETA, and OEKO-TEX-style expectations.

Scope

This procedure applies to all permanent, temporary, trainee, and contract workers at Al-Rehman Textiles. It also applies to supervisors, line leaders, department heads, and HR staff.

Grievance Channels

Workers may raise a concern using any of the following channels:

- Directly to the HR Officer during office hours.
- Through the worker’s immediate supervisor.
- Via written complaint submitted to the HR desk.
- During weekly department meetings.
- Through the suggestion box placed outside the HR office.

Grievance Handling Steps

1. The worker submits a concern verbally or in writing.
2. HR records the complaint in the grievance register.
3. HR reviews the matter and may consult the department supervisor.
4. A response is provided to the worker within a reasonable timeframe.
5. If needed, the issue is escalated to senior management.
6. Corrective action is documented and monitored until closure.

Recordkeeping

All grievances and outcomes shall be entered into the grievance log and retained by HR. Records may include date received, department, issue summary, action taken, and closure date.

Worker Communication

This policy is displayed on the notice board and explained during induction. Supervisors are instructed to inform workers that complaints should be reported promptly.

Confidentiality

Complaint details are treated as confidential within the HR and management team as necessary for resolution.

Responsibility

- HR is responsible for receiving and recording grievances.
- Department heads are responsible for supporting corrective action.
- Senior management is responsible for final escalation decisions.

Note

This policy does not include a separate anonymous reporting hotline or external confidential channel.
